WAR TO FINISH JOHNSON'S DEFY TO NEW LEAGUE

Base Ball World to Be Torn with Dissention As Result.

BULLETIN

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—War to a finish was declared here today by President B. B. Johnson of the American League and his five "loyal" club owners in the fight against the formation of a new 12 club league.

President Johnson declared that clubs would be established in Chicago, Boston and New York next season to take the places of the clubs the revolutionary movement to reorganize baseball would effect.

LANDIS MAY HEAD IT.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 9.—John A. Heydler, president, secretary and treasurer of the New National League, and Hank O'Day, well known to the public for years as an umpire and manager, this morning conferred over the subject of impleting for the new baseball league.

Word was awaited today from Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, judge of the District Court of the United States for Chicago, as to whether he would accept position of chairman of the board of control for a term of seven years at an annual salary of $50,000. The judge had the matter under advisement and said he would make known his decision within a few days.

Chicago today was no longer the rendezvous of leading minor and major league baseball officials. President Ban Johnson and other baseball men left last night for Kansas City where the meeting of the National Association of Minor Leagues was scheduled for today.

Adopt Lasker Plan.
With the appointment of Judge Landis as chairman of the board of the tribunal which will govern the game, pending his acceptance, the organization of the new league included re-affirmation of acceptance of the Lasker plan of baseball re-organization with slight modifications, chief of which was that the minor leagues should be requested and permitted to choose an associate member of the board of control of their selection.

In deciding all baseball matters the votes in the "New National League" will be cast by clubs and not by leagues, under the new plan, it was announced.

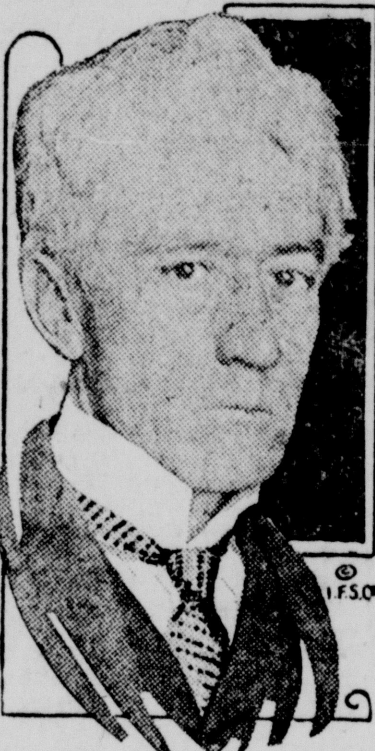

The league comprises at present the Boston Braves, the Boston Red Sox, Brooklyn, Chicago Cubs, Cincinnati, Chicago White Sox, Pittsburgh, the St. Louis Cardinals, New York Americans, New York Giants and Philadelphia Athletics. These are the clubs of the now defunct National league and three clubs of the American league whose representatives signed the resolutions in Chicago Oct. 18 favoring a reorganization of baseball. This action was subsequent to the disclosure of the 1919 world series scandal, their resolutions were based upon the plan proposed by A. D. Lasker, of the Chicago National league club, calling for a civilian tribunal.

For New American League.
The five dissenting clubs left today as components of the American league were Detroit, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Washington and St. Louis. President Ban Johnson of the league, leader of the fight against formation of the new league, fostering its civilian tribunal, announced, before he left Chicago, the determination of the "solid five" to proceed with the organization of a new American league. The new American league gives New York, Chicago and Boston two clubs in the same league. Brooklyn was also included, giving New York three representatives. Besides the other members, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis (National) and Philadelphia (National), the twelfth member it was announced is to be the first of the five dissenting American league clubs applying for membership. The proviso was further made that failing to receive such application within a reasonable time, a twelfth down club is to be established by the new National league and it is not the intention that minor league territory be invaded.

Enmity for Johnson.
Contributory causes of the formation of the new league were the lack of a chairman for the national commission for many months and the apparent enmity of the three American league clubs for Ban Johnson. These three—Chicago, New York and Boston American league clubs—joining in the new plan have opposed Johnson in league affairs for years. They charged Johnson with being the "czar of baseball" while clubs friendly to him countercharged that the proposed reorganization was merely a plan to depose Johnson.

ALLEGED SLAYER OF MISS BARTON NOW IN CUSTODY

Must Face Trial for Murder of K. C. Society Girl.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Nov. 9.—Plans to secure the extradition of Dennis Chester, arrested yesterday at Great Falls, Mont., to return him to Kansas City, to face a charge of first degree murder for the killing of Miss Florence Barton, Kansas City society girl, were made by officials today.

According to dispatches from Great Falls, Chester denied the charge and officials prepared to combat any legal fight Chester might make to resist extradition.

A warrant charging Chester with the murder was issued by the county prosecutor late yesterday on receipt of advice that he had been taken in custody at Great Falls. The arrest ended a widespread search by operatives of a private detective agency, who trailed Chester over western states.

Miss Barton, the daughter of a wealthy shoe manufacturer was shot to death on the night of Oct. 2 when three men in a motor car drew up beside the automobile in which she and her fiancé, Howard Winter, were riding. Winter was wounded in the arm. Robbery was believed to have been the motive of the attack.

Winter, according to the police, recognized the photograph of Chester at the bureau of identification as that of one of the assassins. Winter declared that Chester fired the shots.

PRESIDENT-ELECT HAS FIRST DAY CAREFREE PLEASURE AND SPORT

Appearance is Not That of Man Worn Out By Campaign.

Point Isabel, Texas, Nov. 9.—(By Associated Press.)—Outwardly as carefree as the happiest member of the little community of fishermen who are his neighbors here, President-elect Harding began today a vacation that he hopes will make up in full measure his loss of rest and recreation during the campaign.

A fishing expedition and a game of golf were the compass of his plans for his first day's outing. The forenoon he set for a test of skill with the rod and reel. For the afternoon he had a golf game at the Brownsville Country Club, 20 miles away. The same combination is expected to occupy him during most of his days stay here.

Looks Very Robust.

Appearance of the president-elect as he began his vacation was anything but that of a man who is worn out by the cares of the national campaign. In spite of his long hours and unaccustomed exertion in travel and public speaking, he looked robust and vigorous, and told the villagers that he had come here more because he liked the seclusion and the outdoor life, than because he was in need of rest.

For his cruises along the coast, Mr. Harding used a launch placed at his disposal by Governor Hobby of Texas. He planned to take several extended pleasure trips in the craft during his stay here.

November 18 has been selected as the date of departure for the President-elect and his party from New Orleans for a voyage to Panama. Mr. Harding must be back in time for speech in Virginia Dec. 5, however, and it is understood that his sailing date from New Orleans may possibly be advanced so as to give him a longer stay in the canal zone, where he is to make an intimate study of the local government and the practical working of the big water way.

Marquis is Born in Quincy, Illinois

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Quincy, Ill., Nov. 9.—A stork, bearing coat of arms and herald, visited Quincy late Monday, bringing to Marquis and Marquise Ugo Pietro Spinola of Rome, Italy, a son and heir.

The marquis grew to womanhood in Quincy. She married Allan Campbell, son of Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the English actress, several years ago, but their union was an unhappy one. She secured a divorce from him during the war and engaged in war work in France. Young Campbell fell on the fighting front in France and in Paris his widow met the Italian count, their marriage being celebrated a little over a year ago in Paris.

Marquis Spinola has been visiting relatives in Quincy for several weeks, while the Marquis is on the Atlantic, bound for America.

Over the door of the hospital room where the young nobleman was born an Italian flag is draped.

CONTEST BIG ESTATE.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Boston, Mass., Nov. 9.—The Supreme Court has been appealed to in the contest for the $30,000,000 estate of Edward F. Searles, wealthy real estate of Methuen and New York. Counsel for the will, by which Arthur T. Walker, of New York, was left the bulk of the estate, have appealed to the higher court from the decree of the Essex county probate court which allowed as issues for trial by jury charges of Albert V. Searles, a Boston artist and nephew of the testator, that the will was obtained by fraud and undue influence. Albert V. Searles was given $250,000 under the will, with the stipulation that he would forfeit all claim if he attempted to contest the instrument.

Clearing House for Stolen Bonds Found By Secret Service

By Associated Press Leased Wire
St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 9.—Posing as purchasers of stolen bonds the United States secret agents today unearthed what they term as a clearing house for stolen bonds and through which they charge more than $400,000 worth of bonds have passed.

Clyde A. Smith and Mrs. C. B. Bearse, both of Minneapolis, are in the county jail here. When Smith was arrested at Rochester, Minn., late yesterday $15,000 worth of stolen bonds were in his possession, secret service agents say. Mrs. Bearse was arrested at the same time in her Minneapolis home.

Frank W. Sommer, chief of the Minnesota section of the secret service with headquarters here, directed the investigation and made the arrests with the assistance of several operatives called in from Chicago and Spokane.

A secret agent posing as a thief, went to Rochester with Smith, at the agent's suggestion to make a loan, giving the $15,000 in bonds as security. Smith was arrested as he was putting through the deal at a Rochester bank which had been "let in" on the scheme.

In the Bearse home in Minneapolis secret agents found hidden $30,000 in bonds which they said a check showed were stolen from the Nassau (Minn.) State Bank, the Sully (Iowa) State Bank, the Rockham (S. D.) State Bank and other banks in North Dakota and Wisconsin.

ASHTON MAN IN JAIL ON SERIOUS CHARGE; TAKEN HERE MONDAY

Had 15-Year-Old Rochelle Girl With Him in Dixon.

Speke Wolfe, aged 26, of Ashton, and Miss Nellie Chamberlain, aged 15, of Rochelle, were placed under arrest by Chief Van Bibber last evening, registered at the Ennis hotel, where they were taken to the county jail where they spent the night.

Chief Van Bibber received a long distance telephone message from Chief James Adair of the Rochelle police department last evening, requesting him to arrest Wolfe, who was wanted for taking the 15 year old girl away from that city. They left Rochelle Sunday coming to Dixon, where they registered as Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe at the Ennis hotel and were staying until they could find light housekeeping rooms. Wolfe is a married man having a wife and a child living in Ashton. He is not living with his family, however, his wife having applied for a divorce, but the decree has not been granted.

When the chief confronted the pair, Wolfe maintained that they had been married in Rochelle 48 hours before, but upon being further questioned he was unable to give the time of their marriage or the minister's name who performed the ceremony and finally admitted that they were living together as man and wife.

The couple are being held here today while Ogle county authorities are planning the prosecution. There appears to be some question as to whether the couple will be left in Lee county to be prosecuted here or taken back to Rochelle in Ogle county.

Mr. Wilson sometime ago sold his garage on Ottawa avenue to the Geo. Netz Company which will take possession about the first of next month.

About that time there will be a general shakeup in local automobile circles. The Jack Taylor agency will move across the street into the building now occupied by the Netz Company. John Duffy, who has been salesman for Angier Wilson, has taken over the agency for the Oldsmobile and will establish his show room in the present Taylor location. Mr. Wilson will retain the two agencies above mentioned and move into the Kearney building which is now being redecorated for show room purposes.

Among these were the finding of 26 ballots, marked for Democratic candidates, in a sewer near one polling place, in a report by Mrs. Nora Stanton Barney, an election official, that Republican ballots cast in the thirteenth election district of the first assembly district were declared "void" by other officials over her protests.

LEE CO. CATTLE RAISERS USING PURE BRED SIRE

Survey Also Shows Over Half Farms Operated By Tenants.

Lee county cattle raisers are using 279 registered sires as compared to 307 unregistered or grade sires according to the recent livestock survey carried on by the Farm Bureau and the Livestock Marketing Department of the Illinois Agricultural Association. There is a total for the state of 7,719 grade or unregistered bulls, and about 5,000 registered bulls.

Swine make a little better showing there being 4,574 registered boars against 3,333 grade boars in the state. In Lee county there are 160 registered and 100 unregistered boars, according to the survey. In the entire state there are twice as many unregistered rams as registered. In this county there are 37 grade rams and 13 pure bred. Lee county has 25 pure bred or registered stallions and 23 unregistered or grade stallions. H. W. Mumford, director of livestock marketing of the I. A. A. points out that the reason for pure bred livestock is to improve the common stock of the country to make them more profitable from the feed lot standpoint.

The same survey shows there are considerably more than one-third the farms in the county operated by tenants. There are reports from 582 tenants and 555 farm owners who are operating their farms. While the survey was not entirely complete for the county, the figures given above are a fair indication of the proportion of different pure bred and grade animals and the number of tenant farms.

Illinois Liquor Law Still Stands

The Illinois state search and seizure act will not be invalidated by the opinion of the United States Supreme court, according to a statement from Attorney General Brundage's office yesterday afternoon.

Persons transporting liquor or storing it in places other than their home are still liable to arrest under the state law.

There will be something doing every minute of the evening.

The entertainment will be in the form of a Hard Times party, and all who plan to attend are given advance warning to leave their good clothes at home. The hall will be especially decorated for the occasion and a special committee has been appointed to look after this part of the program.

High Praise Given American Baritone

Concerning Arthur Middleton, famous bass-baritone, who will appear at the Methodist church next Monday evening in the first number of the lecture course to be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of that church, the Hartford, Conn., Daily Times Says:

"There are male singers and male singers. Some of them are men and others are less easily classified. Arthur Middleton is pre-eminently a man, a civil, wholesome man, a man's man. He is not in the least effeminate, but of mild and steady habit of mind. He is a good fellow. It is always fair weather when Arthur Middleton sings, and he is his listeners many or be they few, they will get together in the contagion of his big nature and become good fellows whether or no.

"Mr. Middleton is not only a man, and a good fellow, which considering the fact that he belongs to the concert-giving fraternity is saying a good deal, but he is more—much more. Arthur Middleton is an artist. He is an artist's artist, but his appeal is to anyone who enjoys singing. There is no refinement, no charm in the art of song, foreign to his artistry. As an example and object lesson to young singers and students in the singing, a day of Arthur Middleton is a cycle of all the operatic masterpieces and prima donna possible to mention."

DISCOVERY OF PLOT IN NIGHT FRUSTRATED IT

Only Roof Sheeting Between Men and Freedom.

The Lee county jail would have been without a prisoner today had it not been for the discovery by Sheriff Frank A. Schoenholz of a nearly successful plot last night about 10:30, when he was called out of bed to lock up two prisoners. The sheriff, upon entering the main cell room in the men's corridor to provide a cell for a prisoner who was brought in by Chief Van Bibber, discovered a large pile of rock and plaster partly concealed beneath an old mattress. This aroused his suspicions at once and upon investigating, he found a hole in the ceiling, large enough to accommodate the body of a large sized man.

There were five prisoners in the men's apartment at the time, one John Melsen, of Chicago, who is serving a six months' sentence for stealing sugar from merchandises cars at Sublette, and four other short-sentence prisoners. Melsen planned the delivery and carried on the greater part of the work. This was learned from other prisoners in the jail who have served their terms and will be liberated in a few days.

Worked Way to Roof.

Pressed steel fastenings on an old mop had been pried off the mop stick and doubtless furnished the first tools for the work. The corrugated steel ceiling had been pried loose and the prisoners had worked undetected in the absence of a turnkey or other officer at the jail during the day time, covering up signs of their progress in the evening by pressing the corrugated steel back into place in the corner of the big room directly over the entrance. More than two bushels of rock of various sizes and plaster had been removed from this spot and the tin roof lining had been chiseled away, leaving only the sheeting boards and the roof to be removed before an opening would be effected large enough to accommodate any prisoner within the cells.

About two feet of the thin metal lining had been cut away, evidently by a slow process as many of the particles of metal were found in the pile of stone and plaster hidden beneath the mattress. Two weeks ago Turnkey Joe R. Miller resigned his position and became a member of the city police department. It is apparent that the prisoners availed themselves of this opportunity of his absence to carry on their work.

About a week ago, Sheriff Schoenholz upon investigating the cells and their contents as is his custom, discovered an old screw driver and a pile of one of the pressed steel beds in one of the cells and removed them. He stated this morning that three beds in the cell rooms had been broken and locking all of the cells on the west wing on the main corridor and quartering all of the prisoners on the east side. In this manner he could keep a check on which bed was being broken.

Melsen Bad Prisoner.

Melsen has been a very disorderly prisoner and has not been backward in making brags as to his past career. The other prisoners are Leslie Zahm, who will be liberated in a few days, having served his sentence. Floyd Cain who entered the jail a short time ago and in a short term prisoner and George Wragg and John White, the latter a negro, who were sentenced in the county court yesterday.

One of the prisoners told the sheriff that Melsen had carried on the work practically alone, that the other prisoners had not assisted on account of having only short sentences to serve and were not desirous of taking a chance of being implicated in a jail delivery and spending much more time in jail.

Looking For Turnkey.
Sheriff Schoenholz guarded the prisoners throughout the night and this morning was looking for a turnkey who will remain at the jail. This morning it was found that a heavy steel window sill had been tampered with, a quantity of plaster and some masonry having been removed from around it. The window is very small and is used as a "peep hole" connecting with the main cell room and the turnkey's quarters which are located over the office. This plan of escape had doubtless been abandoned on account of the thickness of the heavy stone wall and an effort made to escape through the ceiling, which in a few more hours would have been successful.

Today's Market Report

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Higher Prices on Grain 'Change Today

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Rallies in foreign exchange led to higher prices today for wheat. Buying on the part of houses with eastern connections found offerings light. The absence of selling pressure was ascribed to the drastic nature of recent declines. Operating quotations, which varied from 1/2 off to 1/4 advance, with Dec. 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 and March 1 1/2 to 1 3/4, were followed by gains all around, although interrupted by a transient severe setback.

Corn showed firmness with wheat. After opening unchanged to 1/4 lower, including Dec. at 81 1/4 to 81 1/2, the market scored slight gains on most deliveries.

Oats reflected the upturns of other grain, starting the upticks at 1/4 lower, May 57 1/2 to 57 1/4, and then gradually hardening.

Provisions were depressed by weakness in the hog market. Locally delivered hams, which had been mainly for shorts, and when this support gave out the market was greatly weakened. Reports were circulated that Kansas butchers were discussing curtailment of credits. The close was heavy 1/4 to 1/2 net lower, with Dec. 1.77 to 1.78 and March 1.75 to 1.75 1/2.

Later, corn along with wheat and oats, dropped to the lowest prices yet this season. The close was nervous 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 net lower, with Dec. 78 3/4 to 79 1/4.

PRIVATE RULE OF RAILROADS AT END—CLARK

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 9.—America never will again have private control and operation of railroads unaccompanied by state and federal regulation. Chairman Clark of the Interstate Commerce Commission declared today in an address at the opening session of the thirty-second annual convention of the National Association of Railway and Public Utilities Commissioners.

Referring to federal control of the railroads, the chairman said:

"When the final balance sheet shall have been completed it will be found that the American people paid a handsome sum for the use and operation of the railroads during the war, but as such use and operation was essential as a war measure, we must, I think, in fairness, consider it as a part of the necessary expense of the war."

Chairman Clark declared that the right of the states to regulate their internal affairs was recognized throughout the transportation act and he urged co-operation between the state and federal commissions authorized by the law.

Additional Guards in Financial Dist.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Nov. 9.—Twenty-five additional patrolmen were today distributed throughout the financial district to guard financiers and financial institutions. It was understood this action was taken because of threats made at secret meetings of radicals. At the same time the detective force in the Wall street district was greatly increased.

The additional force has been made a permanent detail. Not only will its members stand guard over the sub-treasury, stock exchange and banks and brokerage houses but it will keep a protective eye on prominent Wall street men and also watch messengers as they carry millions in securities through the streets.

At the same time that the police action became known, Commissioner of Immigration Wallis at Ellis Island announced that he had received information from agents of The Netherlands government that "falschheid agitators" are heading for America, attempting to bring members of crews to gain their admittance either as seamen or stowaways.

DEPORTED ALIENS IN EFFORTS TO RETURN

Holland Having Trouble with Influx of Bolshevik Agents.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Rotterdam, Nov. 9.—Holland has established a great cordon along the German frontier to prevent the influx of large numbers of Russian Bolshevik agents from Germany. Heavy guards are maintained so that persons wishing to cross the boundary in either direction must pass through frontier posts and over recognized highways. Those who attempt surreptitiously to cross run the risk of being shot.

These precautions have failed, however, to check the movement of soviet government. Men whom government would like to interview have been seen in this city and Amsterdam but when the police set their dragnet for their quarry the men wanted have disappeared. The system followed resembles the "underground railroad" by which fugitive slaves moved through northern states to Canada in the days before the American Civil war.

German Good Haven

Police surveillance is attempted in Hamburg and some other German cities but it usually is in vain, as there are elements in Germany which are friendly to the soviet Russian government. It is declared here that Germany is almost as good a haven as Russia for Bolshevik agents.

"The underground railroad" is utilized by Soviet agents to bring into Holland Bolshevik "missionaries" who are to make attempts to reach America. There appears to be a constant current of these men crossing and recrossing the frontier. Every means of getting them into Holland is used. During recent months many Poles have gone to America and some of them have been deserters from General Pilsudski's armies. It is said regularly organized bureaus were established to help these men evade military duty and go forward into Holland.

Reports have been received here that many Bolshevik sympathizers who were last year deported as undesirable from America are to be returned to that country. Police officials assert a special bureau has been created here to take care of this class of emigrants and carry out carefully laid plans for getting the agitators back into the United States.

LASKER PLAN FACES STRONG OPPOSITION IN MINOR LEAGUES

Stormy Times Forecasted in Meeting at Kansas City, Mo.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 9.—A cloud of gloom and forbidding for the proponents of the Lasker plan for baseball reorganization when the presidents and club owners of the 21 minor leagues of the nation met in convention here today to vote on the proposed civilian tribunal as the supreme governing body of organized baseball.

When the committee of three appointed by the twelve club New National league organized yesterday in Chicago arrived here to present the Lasker plan for the consideration of the minor leagues, indications were that it would be overwhelmingly defeated. The minor league leaders declared themselves capable of settling their own disputes and conducting their own affairs.

Thomas J. Hickey, president of the American Association, David L. Fultz, head of the International league, and A. H. Tearney, president of the Western and Three I leagues were unanimous in expressing their disapproval of the Lasker plan.

"To have the major leagues select the officials to govern us, would be merely to go back to the old system from which the minors withdrew last winter," President Hickey said.

Minors Plan Shakeup.

"The major leagues do not have to select the members of the new commission for us. We are capable of taking care of our own affairs. We employ more players than do the major leagues combined, we have at least as much money invested and never will consent to a scheme by which we would have no voice in the selection of the men to handle our affairs," he declared.

With a revolutionary movement sweeping through the major leagues, the minor leagues themselves started a campaign involving a shake-up within their own organization.

The campaign involved the removal of John H. Farrell of Auburn, N. Y., who has been secretary and treasurer of the association since its formation twenty years ago, and the election of M. H. Sexton of Rock Island, Ill., as his successor. Sexton for a score of years has been a dominant factor in minor league affairs. He formerly was president of the Three-I and for several years has been president of the National Association of minor leagues, an honorary office carrying no salary.

His supporters claim to have enough votes to insure him a salary of $7,500.

It is planned to move minor league headquarters from Auburn to Chicago.

Sexton is Opposed.
M. H. Sexton, president of the National Association of Minor Leagues expressed opposition to adoption of the Lasker plan. He said he was confident the minor leagues would "steer clear" of the major league political situation.

There were twenty guests. The dainty decorations for the dinner were in pink and white, roses being the flower used, the rose motif being carried out in the favors, place cards, etc. Pink roses in a graceful bouquet formed the centerpiece for the table. Crystal candlesticks held pink candles with rose shades, the mellow glow therefrom illuminating the happy scene, the effect being beautiful.

At the conclusion of the elegant dinner Miss Jones was given a handsome boudoir lamp from the assembled friends. Miss Ethel Gorham, in a happy little speech, presented the gift with the good wishes of all.

Music and games completed a delightful evening. Miss Catherine Fane proved herself unusually adept in the art of telling fortunes.

COUSIN OF GREAT GENERAL LAUDS PERFECT TONIC
Colonel Grant Is Anxious for Public to Know About the Merits of Trutona.

Rockford, Ill., Nov. 8.—When Colonel George E. Grant, cousin of General U. S. Grant, came from San Pedro, Calif., to Rockford recently, to visit his daughter, a well-known Rockford woman, of 224 North First street little did he know that he was to find in this city a medicine that would overcome troubles, from which he had suffered most of his life. But such has proven to be the case, and Trutona is the medicine, through which Col. Grant found almost unhelped relief, from his troubles.

Realizing that there are thousands of people who suffer as he did, Col. Grant, gladly authorized the following statement, when interviewed by a Trutona representative, Col. Grant says:

"Most of my life I have suffered from kidney trouble. I experienced such dreadful pains across my back, and my kidneys were so active that I was compelled to get up four or five times during the night. I was so nervous all the time, too. Why, I felt like I'd have to cry out at times. A nervous throat trouble left me with asthma, to some extent. My stomach was out of order, also. I couldn't digest my food. It would sour in my stomach, causing gas formations which pressed against my heart. This brought on smothering spells, when I'd feel that I was going to choke. I was very constipated."

In conclusion, I want to say, that I'm anxious for the public to know, about the merits of this fine tonic, Trutona."

Trutona is sold in Dixon at Rowland Bros. drug store.

UNIQUE OWNERSHIP

The merits of private versus government initiative in business have been discussed pro and con and decided both ways many times. But the scheme of partnership between government and private business by which each profits has not had so much discussion.

Australia has proved it possible. During the war, Australian wool growers entered into a profit-sharing agreement with the Australian government by which the commonwealth acted as selling agent for the wool growers, who pooled their product, and under which the Imperial British government, became the purchaser from the Australian government of all wool for the past four seasons at a flat price of 31 cents per pound. It was further agreed that the net profits made by the British government in the resale of wool thus purchased, should be divided equally between the British government and the Australian growers of wool. The Australian prime minister on Sept. 1, on advice received from the chancellor of the exchequer in London, announced that the Australian wool growers' share of these profits is $31,568,950.

It was good business for government and wool growers. The growers got an assured market, without the necessity of having to bargain and take a chance on prices; they were guaranteed half the profits of the transaction; the government got the whole crop of wool; it could not be held up by middlemen and profiteers and it was enabled to meet its needs and turn over a good profit for itself and the growers.

Nobody was milked; the government was enabled to hold down prices to consumers, get all the wool it needed for the army, play fair with the wool grower and to thwart the profiteer and middleman. It might bear investigation, and perhaps a trial over here.

WHEN TO WORRY

"Man is a creature of sorrow. He is born in tears and never smiles before his fortieth day."

So wrote the philosopher Pliny, and pessimists in every age before and since have found their ways of declaring life a vale of tears and a valley of sadness.

Much that is idle and silly has been written in laughter. Those who forever preach of laughing away sorrow and giggling in the face of catastrophe will find their most proficient students in kindergartens, where children laugh with little cause and in mad houses where the inmates need no cause for laughter.

But, between the two theories of life—morbid pessimism and insane optimism—lies a middle path that the most of folks find it best to follow.

Worry is the implacable foe of laughter. No one denies the value of laughter, but many deny its possibility at some times. Worry too often conquers laughter.

Divide your worries into two parts. There are those misfortunes which thought and a full appreciation brought by worry will remedy and there are others that no amount of remorse or regret will alter.

The man who worries because his pay envelope holds not enough for the comfort of his family, may, if he keeps his worry within due bounds, increase his salary and the happiness of his brood. Laughter then will follow and be good.

But to grieve forever more for the dead—deal mortals or dead hopes—is simply to shut the door fast on heaven-sent laughter and to make of life a true vale of tears and a valley of distress.

Believe neither the one nor the other; the wall of the pessimist or the forced and tiresome chuckle and grin of the constitutional optimist. Both are fakers and hypocrites—the one denying joy and the other sorrow.

You are informed that the weather bureau's prediction of "fair" does not necessarily mean sunshine. Thus is forecasting made safe and not sane.

Puck is Life

(IN A DENTIST'S CHAIR.)

By O. B. Joyful. "And the part that worries me," declared Squire Abner Harpington, "is— which one of 'em was real?" The Squire has a way of opening a subject by concluding it. We handed the Squire a stick of kindling. (If you don't he'll whittle the edge of the desk.)

"I was experimentin' yesterday with the analgetic state of subconscious psychosis induced by nitrous oxide, more commonly known as laughing gas," explained Squire Harpington, misunderstandingly.

"I dropped in to see young Doc Yocum about my defective dentition," continued the Squire. "You know that ole snag of an eye tooth has been bothering me lately and I thought he'd snake 'er out for me. He did, and as Robert W. Belbright sez, 'Thereby depends an anecdote.'"

"He hitched a rubber hickey over my Roman nostrils and tells me to breathe deeply eight times; I observe the dictum of science.

"A great sheet of yellow flame leaps up and shakes and shimmers. 'Twasn't hot and 'twasn't cold but it was sort of heart warming, if you know what I mean. Felt superior like and happy all over without feeling inebriated. I can remember I saw my soul and talked with it and it talked about another soul I couldn't see.

"The flames was rising higher and still higher and I was just about to obtain connection with my astral bodies (seemed just as slow as trying to call the Daily Sentinel & Gazette during the world series) when I heard Doc say: 'Sure was a tough one Squire!'"

"Now I contend: that's the doggondest experience of my old life."

MENTAL ILLNESS.

Many people are surprised to learn that known, avoidable causes are responsible for the condition of about 50 per cent of the insane patients now under treatment. Chief among these known causes is a communicable germ disease called syphilis, to which is due the disease called paresis, or "softening of the brain."

About 25 per cent of patients admitted to hospitals for the insane are there from the effects of habitual use of alcohol. Other causes of insanity result from diseases of the heart, arteries and kidneys, and still others have been traced to the poisons of tuberculosis, typhoid fever, diphtheria and other communicable diseases. Prevention of insanity caused by these diseases depends upon prevention or complete cure of the diseases themselves.

Still other causes of insanity are shown. Hereditary nervous weakness may predispose to insanity, and for such persons, those whose nervous resistance is naturally not very great, the stress of living may prove too much. Mental breakdowns are rarely caused by overwork unless accompanied by worry or bad hygienic conditions, but they result not infrequently from bad mental habits.

The average person, little realizes the danger of brooding over slights, injuries, disappointments, or misfortunes, or of an unnatural attitude toward his fellowmen, shown by unusual sensitiveness or marked suspicion. Yet all these unwholesome and painful trains of thought, may, if persisted in and unrelieved by healthy interests and activities, tend towards insanity.

Wholesome work relieved by periods of rest and simple pleasures and an interest in the affairs of others, are important preventives of unwholesome ways of thinking. We should train ourselves not to brood, but to face personal difficulties honestly.

bundles, and with these bundles lying in straight rows like ranks of fallen soldiers. But he discovered another thing, of greater importance to him by far; he had discovered what had happened to himself.

Mind you, Chip was inside one of the bundles and tied up as tightly as an express package. He could use his paws a little, and turn his head a bit, but his tall—his poor tall was tied right in with the buckwheat stalks and he knew he could never pull it out. THE BOOK OF ANN.

WE PREPARE FOR ANY EMERGENCY AT THE POLITICAL RALLY.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream"—so that political rally in the Lorimer park might fittingly have been called, for Chrys' artistic instinct, combined with her father's cheek book, achieved a veritable fairyland upon which shone a glorious full moon. All the town, irrespective of political prejudices, attended the "get-together" affair. Since nobody was barred, Daddy Lorimer decided to have Morrison, our detective friend, look after the nooks and corners of the house and ground.

Jim Junior arrived barely in time to preside as chairman of the evening's program. In fact, only his little wife had time to run down to the station to meet him. But all of his devoted relatives managed to collect at the big mansion to greet him shortly before the grounds were thrown open to the public.

And I had the satisfaction of giving him a grand sisterly hug, before Ann. It was a very sincere expression of my affection, too. Dear old Jim and I used to be trundled in adjacent baby cabs by our mothers; we have quarreled over the same block-houses and shared the same cookies. Next to my own Bob, I do not know a man whom I think of as tenderly as Brother Jim. I suppose I like him so well that no woman would make the right wife for him, in my eyes, unless it were Deborah Burns.

Just before I rushed home to don my ballet costume, Chrys invited me to make a tour of the grounds with a party of censors. Nobody had much to suggest. Had I been capable of a fresh idea, I was much too weary to put it into words. The arrangements seemed perfect to most of us, from the set fireworks pieces, placed so conspicuously, to the guard of plainclothes men concealed so carefully.

An original feature of the entertainment, which Chrys had arranged at great expense, was an exhibition of all the ways of balloting in use in this country since the first election. At one time, in certain sections of the country, "lection" was an all-day affair for the men, and for the women as well, although they had no vote. It was their duty to prepare a feast so that the voters who rode miles on horseback to the polls might be properly refreshed.

Chrys had procured recipes of some of the old-time cookery, including a special kind of plum cake called "lection treat." The "sub-debs" had the honor of waiting upon the tables and of collecting the profits from the same, all of which went to pay for publishing printed instructions concerning methods of voting. Chrys felt sure that after the women had seen the various ways of voting, beginning with the first rude unlocked ballot-box and ending with the modern voting machine, they would be convinced that the difficulties of casting a ballot are not beyond their physical strength.

She refused to have any program sellers. She didn't want her audience exasperated before the affair was started, as so often happens at popular fetes where the sweet little "deb-ies" charge 10 cents for a program and invariably are unable to make change! That particular kind of a hold-up is ceasing to be fashionable. Chrys said that the richest people resent it most, too. So the only charges for anything made at the rally were the purely legitimate prices put on the "lection" cake and the queer old-time summer drinks, called "shrub."

We could tell before the thing commenced that it was going to be a tremendous success. Even the severest "triangles" which threatened to involve the Lorimers faded in importance as problems. Or else I was too tired to care whether they were ever solved or not.

My one real dread was connected with Ann's father, Augustus Best.

He was due to leave town on the midnight train for the first leg of his excursion around the world. Bob had warned Morrison to look out for him in the crowd, and to take care that he did not get near to Ann or her mother, and to prevent him from making any kind of a scandal.

BROTHER OF DIXON WOMAN IS CALLED

E. A. Gregory Died at Home in Union, Ia.,
Tuesday Eve.

E. A. Gregory, brother of Mrs. A. F. Geiger, of Dixon, passed away Tuesday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Lawrence in Union, Ia., death being due to hemorrhage of the stomach. He was one of Union's older residents. Monday he seemed in his usual health, but on his return from town late in the evening complained of suffering from chills, which later developed into the ailment which caused his demise. He had completed all arrangements for going to California to spend the winter, as has been his custom for years and had planned to vote Tuesday and leave that evening for the west.

Mr. Gregory was born in Sullivan county, N. Y., on Nov. 27, 1842, and was almost seventy-eight years of age at the time of his death, Nov. 2, 1920. He grew to manhood in his native county in New York where he enlisted in the Northern army on Sept. 13, 1864, and was discharged the following July. In 1869 he moved to Sterling, Ill., where he made his home for a number of years. On April 11, 1882, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary A. Wood and they continued to make their home in Illinois until they went to Union in 1883 and settled on the A. F. Wood farm, north of town.

To this union were born two children, Mrs. C. E. Lawrence of Union, and Rose, who passed away at the age of eleven years. Mrs. Gregory preceded her husband in death. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. A. F. Geiger of Dixon and Mrs. James McNaughton of Wessington, South Dakota; and his daughter, Mrs. Lawrence of Union, and three grandchildren, Gregory, Dorothy and Julia.

Mr. Gregory was an active member of the G. A. R. and W. R. C., the veterans' organizations of the Civil War, and had recently attended the G. A. R. national encampment at Indianapolis. He was also a member of the Congregational church of Union and for the past twelve years had been vice president of the Union Citizens' bank.

Reds Making Strong Attacks on Wrangel

Constantinople, Nov. 6.—(By Associated Press.)—Russian Bolshevik forces are making determined efforts to crash through General Baron Wrangel's lines on the Perekop isthmus northward from Crimea to the mainland of Russia, and are massing forces further to the eastward with a view of taking the long tongue of land known as the Isthmus of Tehenkar.

Five infantry divisions are attacking Perekop and fresh storm troops supported by artillery are being rushed southward from Salkovo and Genitschek to force their way into Crimea from the northeast. It is said the Bolsheviks fear their armies will be caught by winter before they are successful in crushing Wrangel, and that they will become demoralized.

UNJUSTIFIED TELEPHONE RATES

In the last hearings before the State Utilities Commission, the evidence presented by witness for the Telephone Company, on cross-examination by the City Attorney for Dixon, brought out the facts that the Telephone Company was earning and paying the interest on its bonds and seven or eight per cent on its capital stock, which stock cost its owners nothing as it was given with the purchase of bonds of an equal amount, consequently paying approximately 14 or 15 per cent on the actual cash investment.

The Dixon Home Telephone Company is practically owned by citizens of Dixon and is it any wonder that the business of this country is in such a chaotic condition, when our own fellow neighbors commit on us the worst kind of vicious profiteering, and try to prove that they are not doing so, by misleading bookkeeping and the assistance of the State Utilities Commission.

This increase in rates is absolutely unjustified, and especially so at the present time, when prices all over the country are adjusting themselves to a fair and reasonable basis, wherein profiteering is being eliminated and actual value being given for what you pay.

There is just one way left to put a stop to this kind of vicious profiteering; is for the telephone users to get together and discontinue using the phone unless reasonable rates prevail. Let's have a public meeting of telephone users and do this and also let the State Utilities Commission know what we think of them, as well as the telephone company and its poor service.

TELEPHONE TALKS—No. 1

Many patrons of The Home Telephone Company have expressed the desire to know just how they may do their part in providing improved telephone service. This series of "Telephone Talks" is the answer.

"BUSY!!"

I should have known better than to try to 'visit' over the phone at this time of day"

When Not to Visit Over the Telephone

During the morning hours, the telephone lines are "tied up" with business. Housewives are ordering their groceries and meats. The stores are ordering their supplies from the jobbers and wholesalers. The wholesalers and jobbers are talking to the freight houses. Party lines are buzzing with real business and everybody is in a whirl to get something done.

Therefore, you are likely to get the "busy" signal between 8 and 11 o'clock in the morning, which makes it advisable for you to postpone your "visiting" until afternoon. Never thought about it? Of course not. That's why we're telling you.

JAMES M. MILES GIVES UP FIGHT, GOES TO PRISON

Banker, for Whom De- tectives Looked Here, Now in Jail.

James M. Miles, absconding bank vice president, who came to Dixon a year ago in his flight from Chicago, after a short stay of $200,000 was discovered in his accounts, and for whom a search was directed from this city for several days, yesterday pleaded guilty to the charge of embezzlement and was taken at once to Joliet to begin his indeterminate sentence of from one to ten years.

Last March, after detectives had vainly searched the country for him Miles surrendered. His spirit was broken. In his pocket were a few small coins.

"My sole ambition now is to make restitution," he said. He obtained his liberty on bonds of $25,000, and went to the farm of an uncle to recuperate his strength. He did not try to see his wife and two children.

Refuses to Face Family.
"I've done them an injury. I don't feel that I can face them until I make restitution," was his explanation.

So far as could be ascertained Miles has not communicated with his family since he left them last November. But he carried their picture in his pocket, and it was still with him when he left the county jail for Joliet. He was eager to begin his term at once, and it was by special permission of Sheriff Petetr that he was transferred yesterday.

About a month ago Miles pleaded not guilty when arraigned. When his case was called before Chief Justice Charles A. McDonald of Cook county yesterday he sought first to obtain a continuance. He was told he must be ready to stand trial today. He walked out of the courtroom.

Pleads Guilty.
A few minutes later Miles returned and told Assistant State's Attorney Raber he wished to enter a plea of guilty. The sentence followed in short order.

And no one could tell the difference! This test of direct comparison was made by Anna Case, world-famous soprano, before 2500 people, at Carnegie Hall, New York City, on March 10, 1920. See the three diagram sketches below:

First—Miss Case stood beside the New Edison and sang.

Suddenly—the lights went out, but Miss Case's voice went smoothly on.

Then—the lights went on again. Miss Case was gone. The audience gasped with surprise to find that her voice had been coming from the New Edison.

Mr. Santa Claus! Come in and hear the phonograph that did it

We want you to see it, listen to it, test it for yourself. This marvelous phonograph can give the family more pleasure than any other instrument you can buy them for Christmas.

Here is why:

This phonograph has actually proved that it can match the performance of the living artist,—and match it so perfectly that no one can tell its RE-CREATION from the living performance.

It did this on March 10, 1920 before 2500 people at Carnegie Hall, New York City—with Anna Case, the world-famed soprano. It did this on September 30th, 1919, before 2500 people at Carnegie Hall, Pittsburgh—with Marie Rappold, prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company. It did this on November 5th, 1919, before 6500 teachers at the State Armory, Albany—with Mario Laurenti of the Metropolitan Opera Company. It did this over 4000 other times, with more than fifty great vocalists and instrumentalists. You can read the facts of these amazing achievements in the leading newspapers of the United States and Canada. They are the talk of the music and scientific world.

And the phonograph? It's the Official Laboratory Model of the New Edison, "the phonograph with a soul." Every Official Laboratory

Model in our store is an exact duplicate of the famous original Official Laboratory Model which cost Mr. Edison three million dollars to perfect. It is capable of sustaining the test of direct comparison; we guarantee this.

Get an Official Laboratory Model for Christmas. You will have the one phonograph which brings you the living performances of great artists exactly as those artists have given them. You know this is so! The proof has been given! The absolute, scientific proof!

Say the word,—and we'll save an Official Laboratory Model for you, and deliver it in time for Christmas.

The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul"

Test It Yourself

You'll be able to recognize its superiority with your own ears—in every kind of vocal and instrumental music. Come in and see whether this isn't so. We'll gladly give you Mr. Edison's famous Realism Test.

Money Help

Ask about our Budget Plan. It shows you how to make best use of your Christmas money. It brings your New Edison for Christmas, and makes 1921 help pay. Careful, systematic spending always makes money go farther.

Prices

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feed young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action but always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

Don't suffer with neuralgia. Use Soothing Musterole.

When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister.

Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable.

Friday

Howdy from New Orleans, PETE!

Say, old clock, you've got the time—maybe you'd like to hear this one! As we were rolling into New Orleans yesterday one of the men in the club car was recounting his cigarette experiences; how he finally pulled a trick on his luck and got set right!

"Well, I've had my cigarette lesson", continued the traveller, "I went up and down the line on cigarettes until I got hold of Camels and got deep into their quality and mildness and delightful flavor! There never was a blend such as Camels combination of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos! I'll say it—Camels taught me what a cigarette should be and they'll teach any man who smokes!" Thinks I to myself—"Sic 'em, judge, every word you spill is a sentence!"

Now, Pete, that's the kind of Camel thanksgiving stuff you get North, East, South, West and through the middle! That's all as true as that little sheep will wag their tails!

I did some tall thinking as I browsed through the quaint old French quarter this evening—how universal the appeal of Camel cigarettes really is! Figure the travelling I've done and the people I've met—each city different from the other—AND Camels have been the ONE cigarette to be found everywhere—and the cigarette most smoked at each point! Pete, old backstop, it's wonderful the way smokers are sliding home to Camels!

Dallas, Texas, for me!

Yours

Shorty.
